1) We understand that traveling within the United States we are required to have a valid government issued photo ID (i.e. driver's license). *

Initial here if you understand and agree.

2) The United States Government requires a valid passport for re-entry into the United States regardless of the departure date from any other country. Traveling to any country other than the United States of America regardless of age we are aware that we must possess a legal Passport, Visas and/or legal documents that may be required by that country. We understand that the passport must be valid for at least six months after our return date of travel. *

Initial here if you understand and agree.

3) Children under the age of 18 not traveling with both natural parents require a notarized letter signed by the absent parent(s) giving permission to the traveling parent or authorized adult to take the child out of the United States. This letter must contain the travel dates and the name and address of where the child will be staying. *

Initial here if you understand and agree.

4) It is our (the passenger/s) sole responsibility to have the proper legal documents for travel in our possession at all times during travel and in no way will we hold Travel Leaders or its agents liable for misplacement or destruction of our official documents for travel. *

Initial here if you understand and agree.

5) I will be responsible for all cancellation penalties or loss of monies that may incur for our failure to produce the proper legal documentation. *

Initial here if you understand and agree.

6) Cruise Passengers – Cruise lines have restrictions on sailing when pregnant. Women who have entered the 24th week at the time of sailing may be denied boarding. *

Initial here if you understand and agree.

7) The importance of purchasing travel insurance to protect us from possible loss of money due to supplier bankruptcy/default, unexpected trip cancellation/interruption due to accident, sickness or death, baggage loss, medical expenses and emergency air transportation costs was discussed with us, prior to deposit being applied to our booking. *

Initial here if you understand and agree.
