International & Domestic Release of Liability

Please read each statement carefully, sign and submit your completed copy.

If you have questions or require further clarification, contact your Stone Arch Travel advisor.

We understand that traveling within the United States we are required to have a valid government issued photo ID (i.e. driver's license).

Please initial here if you understand and agree:

The United States Government requires a valid passport for re-entry into the United States regardless of the departure date from any other country. Traveling to any country other than the United States of America regardless of age we are aware that we must possess a legal Passport, Visas and/or legal documents that may be required by that country. We understand that the passport must be valid for at least six months after our return date of travel.

Please initial here if you understand and agree:

Children under the age of 18 not traveling with both natural parents require a notarized letter signed by the absent parent(s) giving permission to the traveling parent or authorized adult to take the child out of the United States. This letter must contain the travel dates and the name and address of where the child will be staying.

Please initial here if you understand and agree:

It is always our (the passenger/s) sole responsibility to have the proper legal documents for travel in our possession during travel and we understand that Stone Arch Travel and its agents will not be held liable for misplacement or destruction of our official documents for travel.

Please initial here if you understand and agree:

I will be responsible for all cancellation penalties or loss of monies that may incur for our failure to produce the proper legal documentation.

Please initial here if you understand and agree:

Cruise Passengers - Cruise lines have restrictions on sailing when pregnant. Women who have entered the 24th week at the time of sailing may be denied boarding.

Please initial here if you understand and agree:

We (the travelers) understand the importance of purchasing travel insurance to cover or protect us from certain risks inherent of travel such as the inability to travel due to medical or personal emergency, emergency air transportation costs, baggage loss, medical expenses, supplier bankruptcy/default, interruption due to accident, sickness or death, etc. If travel protection is declined, I/we acknowledge and accept liability of any and all cancellation penalties, damages and/or out of pocket expenses incurred. All cancellations or no-shows are subject to additional charges or penalties imposed by the supplier and I/we understand that I/we are responsible for payment of those charges and penalties.

Please initial here if you understand and agree:

Have you (the travelers) purchased travel insurance for this trip?

Yes: No:

If you answered no, please contact your Stone Arch Travel advisor if you have questions on the importance of travel insurance protection or would like to purchase a travel protection policy through a licensed travel insurance provider.
